

Title:
The New Library – Facilitating Flexible Learning

Subject:
The new library extension facilitates up to eight different learning styles

Overview:

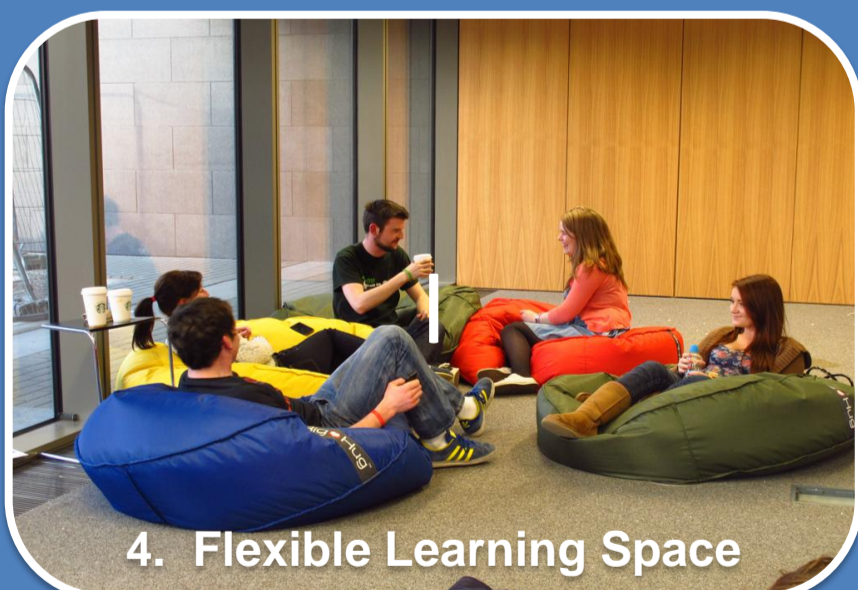

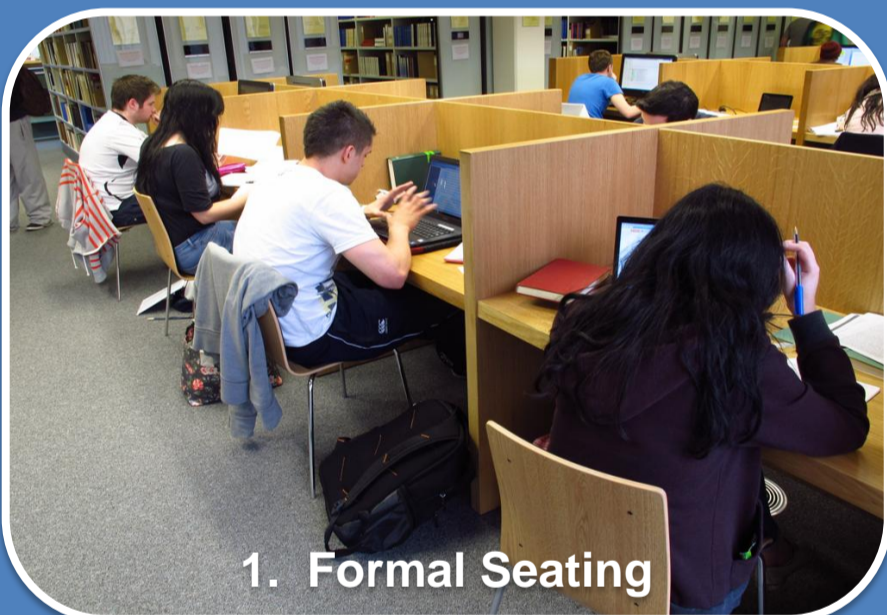

The new library is now offering all library users:

- Increased choice, convenience and personalisation to suit each individual
- Eight different learning spaces including social, collaborative, silent and individual spaces

How it Works:

The different learning spaces in the library include:

1. Formal Seating
2. Casual Seating
3. Training Rooms
4. Flexible Learning Space
5. Open Plan Study Spaces
6. Large Group Study Area
7. Small Group Study Rooms
8. Computing Spaces

Impact:

- Over 300,000 entries to the library since opening on December 3rd 2012
- Each of the diverse study areas are heavily used
- We are now offering several different study spaces, helping users to reach their learning goals
